

General Electric Participates in Cabora Bassa, News and Notes Committee for a free Mozambique, March 1971.

The General Electric Company has requested financing from the U.S. government Export-Import Bank for the sale of $ 55 millions of dollars worth of transformers to the Cabora Bassa Dam project. The Export-Import Bank has not yet made a commitment. General Electric has refused comment.