

August 5/9/94

Mozambique faces starvation

HARARE. — The World Food Programme has launched an appeal for $11 million in food aid to feed more than a million people facing starvation in war-ravaged Mozambique.

The shortages had been caused because of an influx of refugees and demobilised soldiers ahead of Mozambique's elections next month. — Sapa-Reuter.