

Mozambique claim of capture of 300 (Rhodesian "infiltrators" (Text) At a mass rally held in Tete, presided over by the Tete Provincial Governor, Felix Amane, on 3rd February [words indistinct] eight agents of the Ian Smith regime, who had been captured by our security and defence forces, were paraded before the people. This group of eight enemy agents, comprises some young boys in the pay of the Smith regime who were engaged in spying and subversion among the people. Meanwhile about 300 infiltrators were captured in Tete Province during the late months of last year and early this year when they were trying to carry out sabotage and subversion. A quantity of enemy equipment and material captured by the security defence forces was recently presented to the national news media. (Maputo in Portuguese 1030 gmt 11 Feb 79)
