

Alleged murder of Mozambicans by Mugabe guerrillas (Text) A Mozambican national resistance fighter has said he has found the bodies of seven Mozambican soldiers near the border with Zimbabwe. According to the anti-Machel fighter, the seven Mozambicans were killed by Robert Mugabe's guerrillas for refusing to fight inside Zimbabwe. As we have recently announced, Samora Machel's Government forces Mozambican youths to fight side by side with Mugabe's forces; but most of them are opposed to this type of mercenary activity.
