

Mozambique rebels murder supporters of Marxist leader

Salisbury (Reuter)—Rebels in Mozambique have decapitated government supporters near the Zimbabwe border and impaled the heads on staves as part of a new drive against the Marxist government of President Samora Machel, according to fugitives from the area.