

Mozambican government military report (Excerpt) In the past two months, the Mozambican armed forces killed 24 armed bandits and captured another three in the Ribaué, Mossuril and Isle of Mozambique districts of Nampula province. During this period, our troops also captured six bandits collaborators and released about 250 civilians who had been forced to live with the bandits. . . (Maputo home service in Portuguese 0400 gmt 9 Sep 86)