

MNR official surrenders

MAPUTO — The former chief spokesman for the MNR bandits in Mozambique has surrendered and will address a news conference here tomorrow, government officials announced yesterday.

The Information Ministry gave no details about when and why Paulo Oliveira turned himself in to the government but said Oliveira, who was chief spokesman for the MNR at its office in Lisbon, Portugal, would benefit from the amnesty announced last year. — Ziana-AP.