[Text] A source with the Chief of General Staff in Maputo told AIM today that on Sunday [2 Oct], armed bandits murdered 15 people and wounded 8 during an attack against Colela, 30 km south of Chibuto in Gaza Province. The source added that the attack occurred at dawn. The bandits stormed several shops in the area, but the source did not identify them. However, a large amount of goods belonging to the residents, was stolen.

Moreover, the source said that Mozambican forces killed nine armed bandits when they attempted to attack Mazoe and Namatangue in Mozambique's Tete Province. The operation occurred on 30 September, resulting in the capture of one 81mm mortar.

A millet experiment project, sponsored by FAO, is located in Namatangue.
