

Renamo Claims Capture of Inhaminga Barracks

*LD2610211188 Lisbon Domestic Service in Portuguese
2050 GMT 26 Oct 88*

[Text] Renamo claims it has taken the army barracks at Inhaminga. A Renamno spokesman said in Lisbon today that the rebel forces have occupied the army barracks in the village of Inhaminga 170 km from Beira, capital of Sofala Province. During the attack last Thursday, 27 soldiers were killed, 17 taken prisoner and large quantities of armament and medical supplies seized.

This Renamo claim has not been confirmed by independent sources.