

Pope pleads for the oppressed

Rome, July 15.—The Pope called today for greater feeling for the sufferings of others, drawing attention in particular to the "atrocious dramas that man still carries out against man oppressed or taken unawares by inhuman delinquency". His remark was thought to apply to the Mozambique atrocities.

Signor Carlo Fracanzani, a Christian Democrat deputy, has put down a question in the Italian Parliament calling for a public condemnation of Portuguese atrocities in Mozambique.