
H - 870129

Soviets on plane crash

MOSCOW. — There is no doubt that the cause of the crash of Mozambique President Samora Machel's plane in South Africa last year was a deliberate subversive act carried out with the help of a powerful ground radio device set up outside the Maputo airport, Soviet Deputy Civil Aviation Minister Ivan Vasin stated at a Press conference in Moscow.

Cde Vasin claims that the plane crew was given incorrect information by a false radio-beam. —
Z i a n a - T a n j u g.
