

The Times
June 3, '77
(fragment)

In the first official South African reference, Mr R. F. Botha, the Foreign Minister, to-day confirmed that his Government had been in touch with Rhodesia about the attack. In a terse statement he said: "There was a communication with the Rhodesian Government. Various points of view and alternatives were pointed out to them."