

S Africa and Mozambique Because of the unilateral suspension by Mozambique of the joint security commission (ME/8086/ii) renewed allegations by Mozambique that the Incomati accord was still being violated would not be investigated, the South African agency said on 25th October quoting a South African Defence Force spokesman.

Mozambican view of Radio Truth "as a clear violation of Incomati accord" (Text)
A South African radio station has been broadcasting armed bandit propaganda in a clear violation of the Incomati accord, aim [Mozambican agency] reported. After the signing of the Incomati accord, which led to the closure of the armed bandit radio station inside South Africa, their propaganda campaign was carried out through Radio Truth [preceding word in English]. Radio Truth transmits from Transvaal and aims mainly at Zimbabwe. Most of its programmes call for the overthrow of the ZANU-PF Government of Prime Minister Robert Mugabe. This radio station began broadcasting in March 1983 in English and in various Zimbabwean and Mozambican national languages. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1400 gmt 25 Oct 85)
