Text of reports:

President Samora Machel received today Roelof Botha, the South African Minister of Foreign Affairs, who has delivered a message from Pieter Botha, the South African Head of State. The message basically examined the issues relating to the implementation of the Incomati accord.

Analysing the situation one year after the signing of the accord, President Samora Machel said it had not yet achieved its objective that was fundamental to its signing. President Samora Machel stressed that peace had not been achieved in Mozambique, because the South African authorities had not taken energetic decisions to end the activities of the armed bandits operating from that territory [South Africa].

In this context, President Samora Machel referred to the recent discovery of a complex network of armed bandits linked to smugglers, currency forgers, gansters and international bankers.

The Mozambique Head of State said also that the lack of decisive measures by the South African authorities to eliminate the international and imperialist plot from South Africa territory rendered void the spirit and letter of the Incomati accord.

The meeting was attended by Armando Guebuza, Minister to the Presidency; Jose Oscar Monteiro, Minister of Interior; Alcantara Santos, Minister of Ports, Railways, and Merchant Shipping; Teodato Hunguana, Second Deputy Interior Minister; and Lt-Col Fernando Honwana, personal assistant to the President of the Republic. The South African Minister was accompanied by high-ranking officials of the South African Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and Colin Patterson [phonetic], the South African trade representative in Mozambique.

Note: Lisbon radio (home service in Portuguese 1800 gmt 20 Mar 85) in reporting the Machel-Botha meeting in Maputo, said President Machel had "formally blamed" South Africa for violation of the Incomati accord.
