

S Africa: SADF reacts to Chissano allegation of attack (ME/8459/ii) The SADF has reacted to allegations by President Chissano of Mozambique that South Africa is planning an attack on his country by saying that South Africa wants to live in peace with its neighbouring states, but not at the cost of the safety of its inhabitants, Johannesburg radio reported on 6th January. A defence force spokesman added that the security of the people of South Africa was being threatened by terrorists who were being accommodated and supported by neighbouring states.
