

Mozambican leader warns of possible S African attack President Chissano has said that South Africa might launch a direct attack against Mozambique in the next two weeks, according to Maputo radio on 6th January. Addressing diplomats accredited to his country, Chissano said that Pretoria's threats against Mozambique were very real. 7/1/87