

S Africa: Pik Botha holds talks with Mozambican minister Johannesburg television on 26th April reported that the possibility of a meeting of the heads of state of Mozambique and South Africa was discussed in Cape Town that day between the South African Foreign Minister Pik Botha and President Chissano's special envoy Gen Jacinto Veloso. The report added that President P.W. Botha had received Gen Veloso, who conveyed a message of good will to the South African government and affirmed Mozambique's intention to contribute positively towards resolving the conflict in the region but added that Mozambique was "convinced that Renamo continued to receive support and advice emanating from South African territory". In his message, President Chissano said that the current negotiations regarding the reactivation of Cahora Bassa and the use of Maputo port and railway had made "a positive contribution to the climate for a healthy relationship between the two countries".
