

ANC'S MAPUTO OFFICE RANSACKED

An ANC statement on 27 December ... said that the ANC office in the Mozambican capital had been broken into on 25 December, and filing cabinets and desks had been ransacked. A number of items were missing. The statement said that the incident bore similarities to an attack on the same office in May 1987, which had been attributed to the South African government... The ANC statement had accused 'agents of South Africa's white minority regime' of the attack...
