

MATOLA MASSACRE REMEMBERED

The diplomatic mission of the ANC in Maputo held a wreath-laying ceremony on the eighth anniversary of the Matola massacre. Thirteen people were murdered when South African commandos raided ANC refugee houses in Matola, on the outskirts of the Mozambican capital, in January 1981. The ANC office in Maputo said in a statement to mark the occasion that observance of the Matola massacre is a reminder of SA's continued acts of aggression against Mozambique and the other Frontline States. It said the massacre meant there should be more unity and redoubling of efforts in the fight against apartheid.

BBC MR (Maputo) 1.2.89