

South African delegation '89 visits Mozambique Johannesburg radio reported on 12th May that a delegation of South African foreign affairs officials had ended a visit to Maputo during which it held talks with the Mozambican government on economic and security matters.