THE deputy minister of Trade and Industry, David Graaff, has arrived in Mozambique for a brief visit to discuss the prospects for greater business co-operation between Mozambique and South Africa.

Graaff would meet senior government officials and business leaders in Maputo, an office spokesman said yesterday.

He would also address a seminar on business co-operation between Mozambique and SA, organised by the SA trade office in Mozambique.

The seminar would deal with various aspects of co-operation between the two countries, including bilateral business links, investment, transport, trade and financing.

Graaff would also visit some industrial plants in Maputo.
