

Speeches at Moscow meeting At the Moscow meeting held on 8th January to celebrate the ANC's 75th anniversary, Aleksandr Mokanu, Deputy Chairman of the Presidium of the USSR Supreme Soviet, said that from now on the ANC would have a mission in Moscow. Makatini, leader of the ANC delegation, gave Radio "Peace and Progress" a recorded statement by Tambo, ANC President, in which the latter called for an assault on the Pretoria regime to celebrate the day ("Radio Peace and Progress" in English for Africa 1630 gmt 8 Jan 87). The Zambian ambassador, Fines Liboma, spoke of the brunt of the struggle being borne by the front-line states, but said that these countries remained committed to the struggle for independence (Moscow in English for Africa 1700 gmt 8 Jan 87).