

May 30, 1982

Around the World; Soviet Said to Promise Arms for Mozambique

REUTERS

The Soviet Union has promised Mozambique continued military aid, the official press reported today.

Gen. Aleksei A. Yepishev, leader of a military delegation that arrived here Friday, reportedly told Mozambique's Political Commissar, Lieut. Gen. Armando Emilio Guebeza, "The Soviet Union will give every support to enable your country to reach the objectives for which it is struggling."