[Text] Twenty-five trade union and Mozambique-Workers Organization [OTM] cadres left for the USSR on Wednesday where, for 35 days, they will exchange experiences with local trade unionists. Guilherme Xavane, is head of the delegation.

The Mozambican trade union cadres will visit several productive sectors during their stay in the socialist country to learn about the economic changes resulting from the continuing reforms in the USSR. The visit is part of the existing framework of cooperation between OTM and Soviet trade unions.
