[Text] In Maputo today, Foreign Affairs Minister Pascoal Mocumbi said all must contribute to eliminate war, especially in our region, before it develops to the extent that it will threaten world peace.

The Mozambican foreign minister spoke at an audience with Vladilen Vasev, a senior official in the USSR Foreign Ministry. Vasev is in Maputo to tell our authorities about the results of the Reagan-Gorbachev summit in Moscow recently.

At the audience, Foreign Affairs Minister Pascoal Mocumbi said Mozambique has already shown that it wants to contribute to peace in southern Africa and in the world.
