

MR. VASSILI DOZHDALEV (Consular Agent of the Soviet Union in Cape Town) said to-day when questioned about the closing of the Russian Consulate in the Union: 'It was so unexpected — I thought we were getting on fine — what else can I say? Let us talk about the weather.'