Zimbabwe and Mozambique sign military co-operation pact (Text) Zimbabwe and Mozambique have signed a military co-operation agreement aimed at consolidating relations between the armed forces of the two countries. The agreement was signed in the Mozambican capital, Maputo, yesterday after two days of security consultative talks. The Zimbabwean delegation to the meeting was led by the Minister of Defence, comrade Enos Nkala, and included the Minister of Home Affairs, comrade Moven Mahachi, and senior police, government and army officials. The meeting condemned the activities of Renamo bandits in the two countries and praised the resistance of the Angolan armed forces against the invading South African force.
