MOZAMBICAN President Joaquim Chissano left Harare early yesterday morning after an overnight stop-over to hold consultative talks with President Mugabe.

He had arrived from Maputo on Saturday and yesterday left to hold a brief meeting with President Mobuto Sese Seko of Zaire before going on to Cape Verde to attend a meeting of African leaders from Portuguese-speaking countries.

Government sources yesterday said earlier reports that he had briefed Zambia's President Kenneth Kaunda in Lusaka before coming to Harare were incorrect.

The meeting between President Mugabe and President Chissano took place at State House.
