

Zimbabwe-Mozambique extradition agreement now in force (Excerpts) A criminal extradition agreement between Zimbabwe and Mozambique came into effect today with its publication in the latest edition of the government gazette. The basis for the treaty was laid in November 1984. . . The agreement [word indistinct] allows for nationals of both countries to be extradited in connection with criminal charges. . . (Harare home service in English 1600 gmt 19 Sep 88)

21 Sep 88 ME/0262 B/2