

BECAUSE RENAMO (Mozambique Resistance Movement) guerrillas continually raided across the border of Mozambique into Zimbabwe, the Zimbabwe government has again renewed the state of emergency which has been in force in the country throughout independence. It was originally introduced by Prime Minister Ian Smith during the civil war.

SAR 19/1/90