

Vehicles for Mozambique

EASTERN Transvaal premier Matthew Phosa would hand over multipurpose vehicles to Mozambique tomorrow to help combat border crime, provincial spokesman Thomas Nkosi said yesterday.

The vehicles and communication equipment, to be deployed in co-operation with the SA Police Service, would be handed to Mozambican authorities at White River.

The ministry said Foreign Affairs had funded the donation.

REPORTS: Business Day Reporters, Sapa.

BD6/9/94