
Resignation of Mozambique's Ambassador to Portugal Maputo radio on 29th June said the Mozambique agency had reported that the Ambassador to Portugal, Joao da Silva Ataide, had tendered his resignation in a message to President Machel sent from Paris. Reporting the resignation, Lisbon radio quoted a Portuguese press report saying that the Ambassador had expressed his wish "to collaborate with his country but not in the present conditions". 1982