

Mozambique National Resistance Movement officials removed According to a report on Capital Radio, Umtata on 28th February, a founder-member of the MNR, Evo Fernandes, has been taken off the organisation's National Council and former Lisbon spokesman Jorge Correia has been expelled on the grounds that both men had been harming the MNR through their "scheming, petty corruption and self-promotion". Quoting MNR sources, the radio said that the moves were a bid to improve the organisation's international image.
