'Mueda Day'

MEMBERS of the Mozambique Liberation Front (Frelimo) observed "Mueda Day" in Dar es Salaam at the weekend. Dr. Eduardo Mondlane, the organisation's president, said in a statement that June 16 each year will now be a Mozambican memorial day, when Mozambicans will meet to renew their determination to free their homeland.

It was on that date in 1960 that 600 Mozambicans died in a mass shooting at Mueda, in Northern Mozambique.
