

□ □ □

*CF
12/1/93*

Japan has given Mozambique Z$25m to repair and maintain its fishing fleet. The funds, in grant form, will help revive the country's fisheries sector, presently depressed because of drought, war and lack of repair and maintenance. The project will be carried out at Quelimane, 30km upstream from the open seas and central to the other fishing ports of Beira and Angoche.

□ □ □