

Soldiers killed in helicopter crash AIM News Bull. (144) July '88 p.12
Twenty-one people were killed and four others injured after a Mozambican air force helicopter crashed 18 June in Zambezia province in north-central Mozambique.

According to an official announcement from the Mozambican Minister of Defence, the four survivors were crew members, while the rest of the passengers were all military personnel.

Preliminary indications are that the accident was caused by a technical problem in the motor.

The victim's names were not disclosed.
