

Mozambique: defence forces express support for Frelimo over student actions (Text) The Mozambican defence and security have expressed support for the Frelimo Party Central Committee secretariat's communique concerning the demands by Eduardo Mondland university students. Through a motion of solidarity issue this evening, the Mozambican defence and security forces 'repudiated the method adopted by students, adding that it was not at all constructive. The document stated that the war of destabilisation waged from South Africa is the main cause of Mozambique's hardships. In the document, the Mozambican defence and security forces reiterated their determination to continue standing firm in the struggle against the enemies of our independence. They also reaffirmed their readiness to deal with any attempt to place the People's Republic of Mozambique in jeopardy, adding that our republic is the fruit of sacrifices and blood shed by our fatherland's best sons. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1900 gmt 10 May 89)