

Broadcast addressed to Cubans in Mozambique (Editorial report) "The Voice of Free Africa", the radio which has a Salisbury postal address and which broadcasts anti-Mozambique Government material in Portuguese, at 1822 gmt on 19th April interrupted a musical interlude to carry the following: "Attention (?Kakumaku), attention (?Bereia), attention Elephant: thank you for your help." At 1834 gmt an announcer said: "The 'VOFA' today broadcasts a programme specially dedicated to the Cubans who are in Mozambique serving the interests of Soviet communism. To the people of Cuba, victims of the communist oppression of the Russian lackey namely Fidel Castro, we send fraternal greetings. It is for them that the programme by our contributor Pepe was written. Even though it is in Spanish, all Mozambicans can easily understand it." There followed a 17 minute broadcast in Spanish describing how the Cuban revolution had turned sour and pointing out to Cuban soldiers in Africa that they were aiding the oppressors of the people of Mozambique and Angola. At the end the commentator thanked "VOFA" for the time granted to him and signed off: "For the world, on the 28th of March, 1977. This is Pepe."
