

PARIS (UPI) — Two French engineers kidnapped in December by Mozambique rebels have been found in Malawi four days after being released by the guerrillas, their employer, Alsthom-Atlantique electrical engineering, said Thursday.

INT
4/2/83

International Herald Tribune, 4 February 1983