

The Times, 1 August 1983

Pilot sentenced

Maputo (Reuter) - Clive Ciasstula, British pilot of a South African-registered light aircraft which made an unauthorized landing in Mozambique, has been sentenced to six months' gaol or a fine of £20 for each day of the sentence for making false statements to the authorities, according to the official news agency AIM.

TT. 1/8/83