

Blast derails train

MAPUTO. — A mine placed on the railway between Maputo and South Africa derailed a goods train 48 km north of Maputo on Friday. A spokesman for Mozambique Railways said yesterday that the train driver was seriously injured and the guard received slight injuries. — ZANA-AIM