

DESTABILISATION CONTINUES

Moz. News Review (Br), 86 06 06 (fragm)

MAPUTO PROVINCE

The railway from Maputo to South Africa is once again out of operation following a derailment caused by sabotage on 22 May. A goods train travelling from the South African border town of Komatipoort to Maputo hit a mine placed on the track in the locality of Pessene 43 kilometres from the border. The train was carrying South African coal to Maputo port.