

Renamo claims capture of five Mozambican towns (Text) The Mozambican [Mozambique National Resistance Movement] movement says they have killed more than 200 government troops and captured five northern towns in operations between 17th and 21st of this month. Renamo said in a statement released in Lisbon that its forces had captured Gurue, Maganja da Costa, and Lion in Zambezia province and Malema and Mutuali in Nampula province. The (?cable) said the recent campaigns are part of old Renamo strategy to concentrate its attacks on population centres. (Johannesburg in English for abroad 0630 gmt 26 Jul 86)
