

Mozambican rebels kidnap three priests (Text) Three Portuguese Jesuit priests have been kidnapped by the armed bandits in Tete province, Luis Goncalves, the Jesuits' director in Mozambique, said in Maputo today. They are Antonio Reis, 51; Joaquim Barata, 60; and Brother Jose Carvalho Lima, 60. The kidnapping occurred in the Angonia district on 8th November during an attack on the town of Ulongue near the border with Malawi. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1500 gmt 24 Nov 86)