

H: 86129

Malan threats disturb AIM

MAPUTO. — The threats made at the weekend against the Mozambique news agency, AIM, by South African Defence Minister Magnus Malan are causing serious concern in Maputo, especially since the MNR bandits, who are commanded in the final analysis by Malan, have made journalists one of their targets.

At a speech in Pietersburg last weekend, General Malan referred to a provocative campaign of lies clearly fuelled by Moscow and her agencies like Tass, the Mozambican agency, AIM, and the Angolan agency, Angop, which he claimed was reaching "a despicable level". — Ziana-AIM.