

Mozambique: Renamo to free foreign hostages by Christmas The Mozambique National Resistance Movement has announced in Lisbon that it will release all foreign hostages it holds before Christmas as a "goodwill gesture", Lisbon radio reported on 10th December. According to AFP, there are 52 such hostages, including 34 Portuguese and one Briton, and they will be released "near the border of a neighbouring country", probably Malawi. 12 DEZ 1986