MAPUTO — Two people died and eight were wounded on Monday when MNR bandits attacked a bus at Namaacha, about 70km west of here, the official news agency AIM reported yesterday.

It said all but one of the injured had now been discharged from hospital after receiving treatment and that the condition of the eighth was improving.

The agency said the bandits indiscriminately opened fire on the bus which was travelling from neighbouring Swaziland to Maputo. — Ziana-Reuter.
