

CHRONICLE
MNR base
05 MAY 1987
taken

MAPUTO — The Mozambican army, backed by Zimbabwean and Tanzanian troops, took the main MNR bandit base in the north of the country last week, sources here said on Monday night.

The Alfazema base in the Zambezia province at times provided shelter for up to 5 000 members of the Pretoria-backed MNR movement. The base was on Mozambique's border with Malawi. — Ziana-Tanjug.