

MNR attack repulsed

ZIMBABWE security forces on Monday repulsed an attack by MNR bandits on a tea factory in Chipinge, the Zimbabwe Broadcasting Corporation reported yesterday.

Quoting eyewitnesses, the ZBC said the abortive attack on the Tanganda Tea company's New Jersey Estate, took place at midnight on Monday. The bandits, estimated at more than 50, only managed to break into a shop at the estate and got away with food items worth $4 000. Follow-up operations, which are still continuing, have resulted in the capture of four bandits by security forces. — Ziana.
