

Goods train blasted

MAPUTO. — Six people died and a further six were injured when the goods train they were travelling in detonated a landmine near the Mozambican capital, Maputo, last Friday morning. A Mozambique railways source said yesterday that the incident took place on the line from South Africa to Maputo, 48 kilometres north-west of the capital. — Ziana-AIM.